

Kitchen Porter

Looking for more than just a job? Want to break into a career path in hospitality? Do you enjoy an upbeat, challenging environment? Would you like all of the above without giving up a social life? Want a mixture of day and night shifts?

Enjoy all this and more when you join with us and help to prepare the exciting food that has Melbourne talking about Mamasita! Come and enjoy working with an energetic and motivated team in our pumping kitchen.

We offer on the job training so you're not just in the sink, you can get involved with food preparation and running your own section, assisting the chefs, and even opportunities for service experience too. This fulltime position also comes with a flexible, reliable roster and friendly, fun loving colleagues. We believe staff should have a healthy work/life balance too. Flexible rostering and you can work in one of Melbourne's busiest restaurants and still enjoy holiday celebrations with friends and family!

Now is an exciting time to start an amazing career at Mamasita – work with unique and exciting ingredients whilst taking advantage of opportunities for growth and advancement within a stable and growing company that believes in caring for their staff.

If you are eager to learn, have the right to work in Australia and the means to get home at the end of the night, please email your CV and a short introduction to careers@mamasita.com.au

The logo for MAMASITA is rendered in a bold, black, 3D-style font. Each letter is thick and has a white outline, giving it a blocky, three-dimensional appearance. The letters are closely spaced together.
